This course provides leadership advice from a Two-Star General with a unique perspective on leadership. General H. Brent Baker Sr. (Retired) provides military and nonmilitary leadership advice, often using positive and negative examples as reinforcement. Examples will apply to trainees' individual lives and careers. Using the very best of the "military mindset", the trainee will learn to rise above leadership challenges and apply lessons to all fields and endeavors. The "leadership tips", presented can be used for years to come.

At the end of this unit the trainee will be able to:

1. Identify key themes of:
 - A. Leadership
 - B. Communication
 - C. Making Tough Decisions
 - D. Being Honest with People

Funding made available by the Illinois Law Enforcement Training and Standards Board, Southwestern Illinois Law Enforcement Commission, ASSIST #14 Partnership and the seven counties of Bond, Clinton, Madison, Monroe, Randolph, St. Clair and Washington. MTU 14 request for certification of this course has been approved by the Illinois Law Enforcement Training and Standards Board.
