Artificial Intelligence & Law Enforcement

Artificial Intelligence (AI) has become an essential part of not only many organizations in law enforcement, but the entire world in many aspects. When used effectively, these tools provide actionable insights and can be very effective. However, with most things created for good, comes the dark side that criminals utilize to engage in illegal activities. This class will focus on different ways AI is being used and how some of these things are being used against victims and law enforcement. This training will provide attendees with an informed perspective regarding the basic understanding of AI, and AI in law enforcement.

Special Agent Jacob Griffin – FBI Springfield Division

Violent Extremists and Our Youth

This presentation to law enforcement leaders will highlight the expanding threat of Nihilistic violent extremist groups, such as 764, and their overlap with juveniles, self-harm, child sexual abuse material, and sextortion. This presentation will focus on what to look for in your case and the resources available.

TO REGISTER: Email David Hayes from the SILEC office at dave@silec.org. No tuition cost to Illinois and Missouri law enforcement agencies. Overnight hotel accommodations will be provided for Illinois law enforcement attendees. Missouri agencies can contact Pere Marquette Lodge & Conference Center to make their own hotel reservations.
